

Julius Caesar Anticipation Guide

Name _____

English II—Unit I—Betrayal and Loyalty

Directions: Place a check mark next to each statement you believe is true.

- ____ 1. Chaos results when lawful social order is broken.
- ____ 2. The best intentions of good, noble people can lead to tragedy.
- ____ 3. Language is a powerful weapon, and in the hands of a skilled person, it can be used to manipulate others.
- ____ 4. Violence and bloodshed can never have morally good results.
- ____ 5. Orderliness and stable rules, even though dictatorial, are preferable to chaos.
- ____ 6. Although over two thousand years have passed, people have not changed much since Caesar's time.
- ____ 7. Power can change a person.
- ____ 8. Some things in life just cannot be explained by humans.
- ____ 9. Ancient Romans contributed to our knowledge/use of medicine today.
- ____ 10. Ancient Romans contributed to our knowledge/use of architecture today.
- ____ 11. Suicide is an honorable way to die.
- ____ 12. Superstitions are true.
- ____ 13. Advice from horoscopes should be followed every day.
- ____ 14. Good luck rituals should be performed before all activities.
- ____ 15. We are able to control our own futures.