

End-of-Year Debate Topics

1. In order to educate students for twenty-first century jobs, should year-round school be adopted in the United States?
2. Should all high school graduates be required to perform a year of military or community service immediately after high school?
3. In order to prevent child abuse and neglect, should teen parents be required to attend parenting classes?
4. In order to decrease the bullying that occurs in schools, should cyberbullying that happens between students outside of school be punished by school officials?
5. In order to select more competent leaders, should people who don't vote pay a fine?
6. Because wireless devices are used at home and at work, should the government provide wireless service for everyone?
7. In order to prevent the deaths of teens on America's highways, should the driving age be increased?
8. In order to protect the environment, should plastic water bottles be banned?